

TEDx Monterey

x = independently organized TED event

Be the Solution

April 16, 2010

1PM possibility

“Magic Seth” Raphael
Impossible Solutions

Kateri Carmola
Don't Just Do Something

Gever Tulley*
Tinkering School

Raphael Garcia
Reusing Graywater & Stormwater In California

Lakhpreet Kaur Dhariwal
How Food Co-ops Will Save the World

Adora Svitak*
What Adults Can Learn From Kids

Peter Shaw
The Warm Human Mirror

2:30PM break

3PM perseverance

Nina Rosete
Collaboration in Education: The Art & Science of Bringing a Community Together

K.A. Colorado
The Cow On The Iceberg:
The Relevancy of Deep Cold

Eve Ensler*
Embrace Your Inner Girl

Dr. Ramon Resa
Personal Empowerment and Resilience in the Face of Obstacles

Fred Wehling
Nuking Boredom and Deterring Burnout

Spector Dance
Eyes of the Hungry

4:30PM break

5PM hope

Laura Lee Lienk
Getting Dirty -- the Soilution!

Jane McGonigal*
Gaming Can Make a Better World

Stephen Palumbi
Hope for the Oceans; The Recovery of Monterey Bay

Monterey Jazz Festival
Patrick Hogan, piano (intro by Rob Klevan)

Derek Sivers*
How to Start a Movement

David Merrill
Physical Blocks for Digital Play

Kelley Calvert
The Rebirth of the Campfire (How Technology Makes a Hope a Verb)

6:30PM food & drinks

Enjoy coffee, tea, and pastries during the breaks. Don't forget to check out the artwork, browse the native plant species, play with Siftables, and talk to people! Use the hashtag #tedxmonterey to tweet about the event.

Please join us for a reception following the event. Wine and appetizers will be served.

* Pre-recorded TED talks.

This paper is embedded with tiny seeds so that your program can be recycled, composted, or planted. To plant, cover paper with 1/8" soil and keep moist.

Sponsored by the Monterey Institute of International Studies, the Institute for Innovation and Economic Development at California State University Monterey Bay, Monterey County Business Council, Access Monterey Peninsula, Jacob's Heart, Mariposa's Art, Livestream, and the Hilton Bialek Habitat. Live interpretation provided by Monterey Institute students.